

PAUL BRENT

Paul Brent is an artist whose paintings of coastal life and nature have gained widespread recognition both nationally and internationally. His passion for creativity has led to an expression both in fine art as well as producing designs for functional and decorative objects. Regarded as today's foremost coastal artist, he has always been intensely aware of his surroundings, and his artwork reflects his wonder and admiration for scenes and objects of natural beauty.

A native of Oklahoma, he attended high school in Long Beach, California and received his bachelor and master degrees in architecture at the University of California at Berkeley where he graduated with honors. He was stationed in Panama City, Florida while serving in the United States Air Force and he has resided there since 1969. He is married to Lana Jane Lewis-Brent, President of Paul Brent Designer, Inc. They have two sons: Jensen and Anders.
