

STEVE LEAL

Born in Los Angeles, California, Steve Leal drew on the family walls and tablecloths from an early age. Encouraged by his teachers and inspired by mentors, he continued his education with numerous classes studying techniques and styles. He has gone on to do many commercial projects. He has been featured in art galleries, and now creates for the interior design market. Steve loves to paint contemporary and decorative works with an upbeat fashion-forward palette. His versatility and ability to use many mediums has allowed him to create a dynamic body of work.

